

LIIF Commits $1 Million to Communities Affected by Sandy

Shortly after Sandy made landfall in New Jersey, the Low Income Investment Fund (LIIF) committed $1 million to relief for communities ravaged by the hybrid storm.

Among the first projects that LIIF supported was St. John's Bread & Life, an emergency food provider that used its mobile soup kitchen in the immediate aftermath of the storm to deliver thousands of meals and supplies to affected areas.