

Established in 2005, Diki Daycare Center has since become a cornerstone of early child childcare, serving families in both New York City and the Boston area. TruFund Financial Services, a CDFI based in New York, supported Diki Daycare's expansion to multiple locations.

"TruFund was the only company that got back to me," Diki says, "And the Business Development Officer that I worked with was persistent, and with their help I was able secure a loan, otherwise I would have given up."
